

ADAM MICKIEWICZ
UNIVERSITY
POZNAŃ

AMU International Compass

STER
PROGRAMME

DOCTORAL SCHOOL OF HUMANITIES

Director: prof. UAM dr hab. Anna Weronika Brzezińska (anna.weronika.brzezinska@amu.edu.pl)

School administrative officer: mgr inż. Anna Wojtera (monika.wosik@amu.edu.pl)

Education in the Doctoral School of Humanities of Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań is conducted on the basis of the framework educational plan and individual research plan and lasts 8 semesters.

The Doctoral School of Humanities coordinates doctoral education in the Humanities covering a wide set of disciplines, from archaeology, cultural and religious studies, philosophy, history, history of art to philosophy and theology. The Doctoral School prepares its candidates to conduct cutting-edge research at an international level.

To learn more, visit the following websites:

Discipline of archeology (Faculty of Archaeology) <https://arceo.amu.edu.pl/en>

Discipline of cultural and religious studies (Faculty of Anthropology and Cultural Studies) <https://waik.amu.edu.pl>

Discipline of philosophy (Faculty of Philosophy) <https://filozofia.amu.edu.pl/en/>

Discipline of history (Faculty of History) <https://historia.amu.edu.pl>

Discipline of History of Art (Faculty of History of Art) <https://wnos.amu.edu.pl>

Discipline of theology (Faculty of Theology) <https://teologia.amu.edu.pl>

We have one-stage procedure for PhD candidates.

More information: www.phdstudies.amu.edu.pl

It has been prepared within AMU International Compass project

(Towards the internationalisation of the Doctoral School of AMU) supported by the Polish National Agency for Academic Exchange, under the contract number PPI/STE/2020/1/00007.